DESCRIPTION

As today's headlines show, an inclusive work environment is not just nice, it can also make or break a company. You can help make your organization a more supportive and engaging place to work at by understanding why diversity and inclusivity is important. Put yourself in someone else's shoes and set a goal on the changes you can make to be more inclusive in your work and every day life.

An inclusive work environment, one that is built on the principles of diversity and inclusion, can make or break a company.

LEARNED TOPICS/OBJECTIVES

- What is diversity and inclusion?
- What are the barriers and challenges we face?
- What is "inclusive language" and how to use it.
- Perspective and goal setting in the workplace.
- Respect in the workplace.
