DESCRIPTION

Workplace injury and illness prevention is a shared responsibility of employers and employees. If an injury or illness occurs, it's important for the employer and the injured employee to focus on getting that employee back to meaningful and suitable work as soon as possible. This module provides an overview of return to work requirements in your province and offers strategies and resources for managers for setting up a successful RTW program.

LEARNED TOPICS/OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the program, you will be knowledgeable and/or demonstrate proficiency in understanding:

- The different forms required in a return to work process
- The pre-injury stage
- What happens on the day of injury
- “Red Flags” to look for
- Hints and tips

ASSESSMENT

Testing conducted throughout this course is designed to reinforce the information presented. A mark of 80% must be achieved in order to receive a certificate of completion. Participants are able to repeat the course if the pass mark is not achieved. Upon successful completion of this online course, a certificate of completion will be available for download and printing.
